Helen Chan, former teacher at Castelar Elementary School in Chinatown was born in Singapore. She earned a Masters degree from Cal State University, Los Angeles. Since retirement, she has become a documentary filmmaker and a published author. Her new graphic novel, Faith and Fire, is with amazon.com and an ebook on Kindle.

Her video covers her journeys back and forth to her little ancestral village of Ping Yuan Lay in Baishazhen, Taishan, Guangzhou, southern China. It is a discovery of her father's village with the help of her cousin. After finding the village, she discovered more cousins who became the key support and help to build and reclaim the house for the Wong family.

Refreshments will be served.

** If you can bring a traditional Chinese New Year food (see attachment) to the February meeting, please email cfhgsc@gmail.com.

Reimbursement available. Thank you!

***a $5 cash donation is suggested.
