

Riverside Asian American Walking Tour (RAAW Tour)

Discover Riverside's hidden Asian American history during Asian & Pacific Islander American Heritage Month!

Left: Dosan Ahn Chang Ho. Above right: Gin Duey. Bottom right: The Harada family.

When: Saturday, May 19, 2018,
10:00 – 11:30 am

Where: Meet at the south end of the Downtown Riverside Pedestrian Mall (Main & 9th St, between Martin Luther King statue and the Culver Center – 3834 Main St)

Tickets: at Eventbrite

<https://bit.ly/RAAWT051918>

Sponsored by:

-  Save Our Chinatown Committee (SOCC)
-  Japanese American Citizens League, Riverside Chapter
-  Young Oak Kim Center for Korean American Studies (UC Riverside)

Thanks to the California Citrus State Historic Park (Relevancy and History Project) and all the volunteers, including students from UCR's ETST 005 class.

In this guided 1-mile loop walk of eight stops in Downtown Riverside, learn how:

-  Riverside's first Chinese quarter disappeared;
-  the children of one Japanese American family helped a California landmark civil rights case;
-  the first Korean American settlement in the United States came to be in Riverside;
-  and how these groups played a role in Riverside's development and history.

Tour details (more at Eventbrite):

-  Nominal fee of $12.00. All sales final. No paper tickets; names will be on a list at sign-in.
-  Check-in: 9:30 am for 10:00 am departure. All tour-goers will sign a liability waiver as part of check-in. Ending time is approximate, depending on size of group and questions asked.
-  Normally there is ample parking downtown; most street parking is free on Saturdays.
-  Please dress for the conditions: weather, wear comfortable shoes, bring water (and anything else you may need, such as hat, sunglasses, sunscreen...)