CHINESE HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

DR. STANFORD M. LYMAN

"GAMES OF CHANCE IN CHINATOWN: THEIR HISTORICAL AND CULTURAL SIGNIFICANCE"

Dr. Stanford Lyman, a long-time chronicler of Chinese-American history, began his scholarly investigations in the late 1950's with the completion of his dissertation, "The Structure of Chinese Society in 19th Century America." Since then he has published The Asian in the West, Chinese Americans, and The Asian in North America. This evening Dr. Lyman, a stimulating and provocative speaker, will discuss findings from his latest research activities on Chinese-American recreational games: their origins, transplanted, impact, and historical and cultural significance.

We are pleased to present Dr. Stanford Lyman as our first speaker for 1981. It promises to be a very memorable occasion.
