An Evening with Lisa See

Wednesday, October 4, 6pm

Join us for dinner at Golden Dragon Restaurant and a book discussion with bestselling author Lisa See on her newest book, Lady Tan's Circle of Women, a captivating journey into the world of the Ming Dynasty. Her historical novel was inspired by the true story of a woman physician from 15th-century China and is a triumphant reimagining of the life of a woman who would still be considered remarkable today.

President's message

We had a great program in September. Dr. Will Gow and his summer interns did a fantastic job of presenting their findings from the recently-released census from 1950 as it applies to the Chinese Americans living in the East Adams district of Los Angeles. The program is not available on our YouTube channel so you will have to wait until our book on the Five Chinatowns is released to learn about it.

In August, one of our members, Irene Lam, arranged for a tour of historic sites in Northern California for members of our board. David Lei, Vice Chairman of the Chinese American Community Foundation, and Anna Eng, a lecturer at both UC Berkeley and San Francisco State University, were our tour guides. I would like to thank Irene, David and Anna for this wonderful opportunity to connect with our past and be proud of the accomplishments of our ancestors. Seeing something first hand has such a powerful impact, far more than just reading about it in a textbook.

I was fortunate to participate in a walking tour of Chinatown led by Eugene Moy. The tour included the director and staff of the USC US-China Institute, which hosts the Lingnan Chan Fellows. Students from Lingnan University were able to learn about the history of Chinatown to better understand their time in Los Angeles.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Chinese Historical Society of Southern California was organized in November 1975. The purposes of the Society are:

1. to bring together people with a mutual interest in the important history and historical role of Chinese and Chinese Americans in southern California;
2. to pursue, preserve, and communicate knowledge of this history; and
3. to promote the heritage of the Chinese and Chinese American community in support of a better appreciation of the rich, multicultural society of the United States.

October Meeting

Our October monthly meeting is a joint dinner/program co-sponsored with the China Society of Southern California. It features bestselling author Lisa See, who will discuss her latest book Lady Tan's Circle of Women.

About Lisa See

Lisa See is the New York Times bestselling author of The Island of Sea Women, The Tea Girl of Hummingbird Lane, Snow Flower and the Secret Fan, Peony in Love, Shanghai Girls, China Dolls, and Dreams of Joy, which debuted at #1. She is also the author of On Gold Mountain, which tells the story of her Chinese American family's settlement in Los Angeles. See was the recipient of the Golden Spike Award from the Chinese Historical Society of Southern California and the Historymaker's Award from the Chinese American Museum. She was also named National Woman of the Year by the Organization of Chinese American Women.

Walk Down Memory Lane: Moon Festival 1990

The Moon Festival celebration was brought back to LA Chinatown on Labor Day weekend in 1990. CHSSC was a joint sponsor with the Chinese Cultural and Community Center and the City of L.A. Cultural Affairs Department. While CHSSC provided numerous volunteers, the Cultural Affairs Department provided funding as well as technical support and tech management. CHSSC president, Sue Yee, was Festival co-chair. Crowd estimates ranged from 2,500 to 5,000.

The venues for the Moon Festival ranged from Central Plaza to Castelar St. Elementary School to Yale Street. The vision for the event was part entertainment, part education and outreach to all visitor segments. The performing arts included groups of musicians playing Chinese instruments, 3 groups of children doing Chinese folk dance, the Bread and Puppets theater, and the East Wind Lion Dance Group. The Kwun Opera performed Chinese opera in the Castelar Multi-purpose Room for a large group of senior citizens while their grandchildren chased each other around the room. Artisan groups included a popular calligraphic arts booth. The weekend events also included poetry-reading and storytelling. A highlight of the festival was the dramatic telling of Moon Festival myths by noted author and playwright Frank Chin. The evening was capped off by moon viewing from a telescope located on the Castelar school yard.

CHSSC Walking Tour Training Program

Do you want to know more about LA Chinatown? You can become a participant in our new docent training program. The two-day training, which will be led by our walking tour coordinator, Eugene Moy, will start in November. Trainees will use the new walking tour guide that was created by Eugene, Susan Dickson, and Riona Tsai.

The walking tour program began in 1981. The City extended an invitation to participate in L.A.'s Bicentennial. We jumped at the opportunity and quickly organized a planning committee. The committee included Angi Ma Wong, Eugene Moy, Charles Wong (CHSSC Charter Member), Munson Kwok and Suellen Cheng. They were aided by Ella Quan, Helen Young, Bill Mason and Emma Louie. Through the years, classes of students of all ages as well as interested adults toured Chinatown with our docents to see the daily life of Chinatown. They visited temples, gift shops, herbal stores, markets, and, sometimes, restaurants. Visitors walked by the school, the library, the hospital, and many murals along the way. We remember the many dedicated tour guides who have helped during these years: Bill Chun-Hoon, Cy Wong, Louise and Herb Leong, Peggy Wong, and Linda Chong (to name a few).

In 2019 CHSSC received a grant from the Society of Architectural Historians. Originally, the grant was to fund buses of students from disadvantaged neighborhoods to tour Chinatown as well as to fund training of docents as well. When the pandemic prevented students from attending school, CHSSC decided to make an online walking tour on our website. Subsequently, with the help of a donation from Marjorie Chun-Hoon in memory of her husband, Bill, CHSSC designed a 65-page docent training manual which was printed in September 2023.

This past year the requests for walking tours of Chinatown have multiplied. If you are willing and able to help us provide tours of Chinatown, please consider joining our training program. The exact dates of the training will be determined once we see how many people are interested. Please contact us at info@chssc.org.

Chinatown Los Angeles: Yesterday and Today

A Program of Guided Tours and Slide Show Recounting the History of the Chinese and the Chinatowns, Past and Present.

Free Tours to Begin from July through November 1981

A Bicentennial Event Endorsed by the Los Angeles 200 Committee of the City of Los Angeles

Guided Walking Tours

All five Chinatown sites, past and present, cover an area of over three square miles. Two tours are offered that will cover most of this area.

New Chinatown Tour—will cover an area bordered by Broadway St. to the east, College St. to the south, Yale St. to the west and Bamboo Lane to the north.

Early Chinatown Tour—will cover an area bordered by Los Angeles St. to the east, the freeway to the south, New High St. to the west and Alpine St. to the north.

Both tours will be filled with historical, as well as current information.

Slide Show

A short narrated slide show will be shown at the beginning of the tours. It will cover more than a century of Chinese American participation in the growth of Los Angeles.

Historical Booklet

A new 64-page illustrated softcover booklet of the past and present Los Angeles' Chinatowns by Historical Society members, will highlight the sites and names on the tours, as well as reveal many more interesting historical and current facts about the Chinese Americans of Los Angeles. Copies will be on sale.

Tour Schedule

Public tours will be given every hour on the hour from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on the following Saturdays.

July 18 and 25
August 1, 15 and 29
September 5 and 19
October 3, 17 and 31
